

During the 48th season of "It's Academic," the Scholastic Bowl competed against Maret School of Washington and DeMatha High School of Hyattsville. In a nerve-racking questionnaire, Captain Amelia Nemitz led the George Mason team on with the help of Asher Morse and Katie Beunneke to second place. Their effort and dedication helped them with their success. DeMatha ended up winning this brainy show down and Maret coming in third. This recording will be aired November 22, at 10:30 am on Saturday morning. It will be on channel 4 of NBC4.
